HALL DANGERED BY DEFEAT

Says Republicans Who Voted Against Him Are "Benedict Arnolds"

Frank B. Hall of Worcester today branded as Benedict Arnolds the twenty-two members who voted against his re-election as chairman of the Republican State Committee as a reward for commanding the Republican army in the two great victories over achieved by the party in the state.

Hall declared that he was thrown out of office unbecomingly by the faction headed by the Republican League, of which Louis K. Liggett is head, and Charles H. Jones, the Boston lawyer, whom he termed "the arch-lobbyist" of the State House.

He also charged that, although he had worked untiringly in the last two elections for Vice-President-elect Calvin Coolidge, he was also turned down by the Coolidge forces.

State Supervisor of Administration Thomas W. White, the alleged field agent of the Coolidge forces, was quietly upon the delegates in the campaign to put him out on the brink, he asserted.

Mr. Hall said that the motive of the scheme against him is to elect "the arch-lobbyist" as the Republican National Committee from Massachusetts to succeed John W. Weeks, who was defeated in the campaign in the Harding cabinet.

Former Mayor Frank H. Pess of Providence was elected chairman to succeed Mr. Hall. The vote was Pess, 22; Hall, 11; William R. Feltus of Salem and one vote.

Mr. Hall said he could not account for the opposition of "Tom" White, the active promoter of the Coolidge interests, but others said that his principal aim is to get a seat in the U. S. House.

The most Vice-President-elect Coolidge of the organization was Mr. Weeks and Senator Lodge and took unto himself the leadership long enjoyed by the late Senator Crane.

Mr. Coolidge has named the former Senator Lodge for the Republican National Convention.

Hall said today he had in mind the issuance of a formal statement, which will make his position clear, reading to the people of this Commonwealth.

$5,000 TEST PHOTOS TO BE PRINTED AGAIN SUNDAY

New England Theatres Now Co-operating in $5,000 Movie Identity Test

Another three-star  day is on the way for participants in the $5,000 Movie Player Identification Test. Be ready!

The Big Day will be Sunday.

All the Test Pictures, from the very beginning up to the Twentieth Day—Sunday—will be printed in the Boston Sunday Advertiser.

Need we emphasize the desirability, not to say necessity, of placing an early order for the Sunday Advertiser? In many districts, newspapers will not call on Sunday. Sunday Advertiser is the only paper that will call on Sunday. Sunday Advertiser is the only paper that will call on Sunday. Sunday Advertiser is the only paper that will call on Sunday.

So, at all costs, brothers and sisters, speak early for the next Boston Sunday Advertiser. If you are not in the Test, it will be exactly what you need. If you are an "old-timer" in the Test, you may have found reason for changing your mind about the correctness of the name you wrote under Picture No. 1. This will be an opportunity to start all over. The forty pictures will be printed on Sunday may be clipped from the Boston Sunday Advertiser and sent in on one sheet just as well as if you sent twenty individual Identification slips clipped on consecutive publication days.

KEEP SLIPS FILL IN.
Of course you will send in NOTHING UNTIL THE END OF THE TEST. No need to hurry any more on that proposition. If you have not done so already, you should take a few minutes now and read the notice. For pictures that you should not take in a newspaper, you will find that you have not had familiar acquaintance with all the "whereseas."
"Every day or two," remarks the cheerful idiot at the next desk, "you have something to say about your 'Test'—isn't it?" and then you smile, a smile by which you so broad that you might just as well as have the player's Test and be done with it. How come?"

NO MORE HINTS.
We shall have to be careful about this. No more hints that, after today, feel as if the Boston Sunday Advertiser is "in" something about the lady. Known

GROGERS ASK ACTION AGAINST PACKERS

Washington, Jan. 6.—Representatives of the National Wholesale Grocers Association today appeared before the Interstate Commerce Commission asking for a "gratuitous" prohibition from shipping anti-prohibition articles in refrigerated cars. They contended that unless this is done the packers will be able to create a monopoly of the wholesale grocery business.

NOTED IRISHMEN TO TALK HERE

To Judge Cohalan and Michael
J. Ryan May Be Added
Sinn Fein Leader

All the old time speakers in and about Boston, which have "noted" the vast and burden of the day in championing the Irish cause in this section of the country, will be represented at the winter mass meeting to be held in Tremont Temple Sunday night under the auspices of the State Council and the Boston Council of the Friends of the Republic.

A list is in store for all who attend for the speakers will include the most notable writers on the Irish question, Judge Daniel J. Cohalan of New York and Michigan, and of Philadelphia, former mayor of that city, and a member of the United Irish League of America. The presiding officer will be another Boston orator, Attorney Joseph P. Walsh, who read throughout the State by order of the Senate in the recent bond certificate drive conducted by the organization.

If present plans are carried out another speaker of note, one who holds a high position in the Sinn Fein movement in Ireland and who recently reached this country by way of the so-called Sinn Fein route from Ireland to America, will be heard on a question that is now engrossing the attention of the Irish people and their descendants in this country.

The name of the speaker is for obvious reasons withheld at this time. The name will be one of the most prominent with the English government by way of Ireland in the past.

away the rights of ninety per cent of the people who are a pliant and cheap labor in the hands of the English government.

Captain John J. Murphy of South Boston, who led the overland veterans in the big Mother's Day procession recently held in Boston and acted as chief of staff of the parade marshal, has been elected to head the military contingent that will act as escort in Judge Cohalan and Mr. Ryan on their arrival in Boston Sunday morning.

Matthew Cummins, for years an ardent fighter for the cause of Irish freedom, heads the committee of arrangements from the Boston Council. The members of the State Council, of which Daniel J. Moran of Lynn is president, is working in conjunction with the Boston committee to make the affair a memorable one.

7 KILLED IN GERMAN RIOT

23 Wounded, 40 Arrested
When Communists Demonstrate at Leader's Funeral

Berlin, Jan. 5.—Seven persons were killed and twenty-three were wounded in a Communist demonstration at the funeral of the Russian leader, Vladimir I. Lenin, who was killed a few days ago.

Attempts to disperse a mob of about a hundred when the mob was storming the police barracks were unsuccessful. The rioters broke down the gates and the police were forced to fire into the mob. Forty arrests were made.

Many arrests were also made at Hirschfeld, near Halle, where a mob of farmers, armed with bats and hunting rifles, attacked the government's grain commission.

Business prosperity such as America has never seen before was the optimistic prediction for the next future of Charles M. Schwab, head of the Bethlehem Steel Corporation, in an address at the seventeenth annual dinner of the Massachusetts Bankers' Association at the Copley Plaza.

He declared that the wheels of industry will turn as they never have before under conditions of healthy normal business.

"I believe that the so-called depression in business today is the best thing that could happen to business in the long run," continued Mr. Schwab, "because it will teach us to do business in an economical way. American manufacturers have treated their workers with the fairness characteristic of American business men. They will learn that they must economize, and then they will be able to do so."

The Berne Company claims that the tops were returned because of a drop from $4.50 a pound to $3.50 in the market, the price having $1.00.

When the couple fled Boston Mrs. Crawford took with her her seven-year-old daughter, Margaret, and Braining had his sons, aged five and nine years, with him. All were found in a Los Angeles apartment. Crawford was indicted on charges of abduction and kidnapping. Today Braining was found working in a tailoring establishment and arrested.

GAS PRICE UP SNOW MAILED TO $1.40
BALLOONISTS

Increase of "Standard" Rate
May Cost Boston Consumers
6 Cents More Per 1,000 Ft.

The people of Boston can turn on their gas today with the knowledge that the price has been raised again. By an order of the State Department of Public Utilities, the Boston Consolidated Gas Company was authorized to increase the standard price of gas from $1.35 to $1.40.

While the standard price is the price on which dividends to the stockholders are measured, every increase in the standard price has been followed by an increase in the price per 1,000 cubic feet to the consumer. It is the latest standard price boost in less than twelve months. On March 1 last, the price was raised from $1.10 to $1.15, on July 23, to $1.25 and today a new high level is reached.

Consumers were wondering today whether the company will at once raise the rate or will use the standard price increase merely as a machine to pay off extra dividends which may have accumulated under the old standard price. At a standard price of $1.40 the company can pay a 7 per cent. dividend no longer as it will be allowed to pay as a 6 per cent. dividend. If the price of gas went up to $1.45, 1,000 cubic feet it would be permitted to pay a dividend of only 6 per cent.

The company asked for a standard price boost to $1.45. Representative Arthur D. Hill, representing the City of Boston, protested that jump.

ON COTTON INDUSTRY

"Cotton and Cotton Manufacture" is the title of a booklet issued by the First National Bank of Boston, being a companion to its recently distributed book on "Wool and Wool Manufacture." These publications are the work of James Paul Warburton, a member of the staff of the bank, and cover their respective fields in a manner never before undertaken. They contain all the statistics of the industry, but unfortunately, in a manner not very readable. They contain all the statistics of the industry, but unfortunately, in a manner not very readable.

One suggestion made by outsiders is that producers may consider a pooling arrangement, to prevent further cutting of the price of the metal.

SNOW MAN MARCHES IN PARADE. One of the features of the annual New Year's Day Mummers' parade in Philadelphia was a "snow man." There being no snow on the ground, a man from the League Island Navy Yard dotted up this way to make it seem more like a Winter man. The "snow" was made of cotton batting. —(c) Underwood & Underwood.

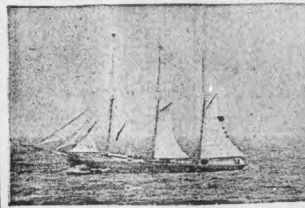

SAFETY BOTTLES FOR POISON. The large number of deaths due to poison taken through mistake has resulted in safety bottles being invented. Two of the above are "lock and key" types, one will not stand up and would hardly be picked out by mistake in the dark, while the other has a distinct shape that distinguishes it from other bottles. —(Int.)

MILITARY OCCUPATION FOR DUBLIN? The spirit of war is afloat in Ireland. The above photograph shows British troops erecting barbed wire entanglements across Castle street, near Dublin Castle. —(U. & U.)

POSSUM PIE TOMORROW. This is the great time of year for possum hunting. The above photograph shows one of the little animals caught taking a nap hanging by his tail from a tree. Flashlight awakened him but failed to make his getaway. —(Central News)

SCHOONER SINKS IN MID-OCEAN. The above photograph was taken of the three-masted Quetz by passenger aboard the liner Vauban, which rescued the crew and passengers of the schooner. —(The Associated Press)

SHOTS WITH EITHER EYE. Lida Linero, 14-year-old rifle expert, injured her right eye recently and shifted to shooting left handed without affecting her skill. Miss Linero was the centre of interest at the recent rifle matches at Pinshure, N. C. She has not, and defeated many of the crack women shots of the country, despite her youth. —(a) Underwood & Underwood.

BODYGUARD FOR THE TREASURY. Representative Joseph Walsh of Massachusetts has been so busy fighting to cut down appropriations this session that his colleagues have nicknamed him the "treasury bodyguard." —(c) U. & U.

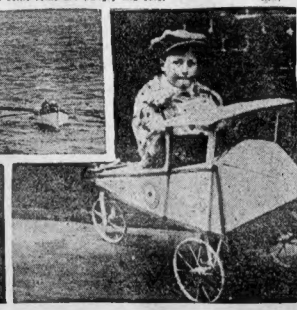

MUST HAVE BEEN QUITE A FROLIC. Chicago artists staged what they term a most successful frolic the other night. Miss Genevieve Clark is shown here in a costume that even the society editor cannot describe. You don't describe this sort of dress. You don't wear them, either (in Boston). Genevieve is a model. She makes a bare living. —(c) U. & U.

ATTENTION S. P. C. A. The pampered poodles belonging to society women must be properly attired this year when they go motoring. This canine "Beau Brummell" has a complete outfit, including goggles, Scotch tweed suit, fur-lined boots, handkerchief, collar, tie and diamond stick pin. And some folks are hungry and cold. —(Int.)

SOVIET ENVOY SURRENDERS. Ludwig Marinko, wanted for deportation, gave himself up to the labor department in New York the other day. —(c) U. & U.

ONE OF THE FEW LEFT. A striking new photograph of Her Majesty, Queen Victoria Eugenie of Spain. The gown makes her appear tall but she is in reality short and plump. She goes to the opposite extreme in dress from the young lady in the centre of the page with the rag-of-dog affair on. She has four sons and two daughters. —(International)

SHOOT THE WORKS! The sub-debe have taken up the game of African marbles, otherwise known as craps. They carry the dice in a trinket that jingles alongside of the little cigarette case and vanity box. In case your wife wears out her stockings at the knees you'll know she has taken up the game. —(Int.)

ONE OF NATURE'S NOBLEMEN. Hans Anderson has spent 35 years dragging his crippled body about the poorhouse. In that time he saved $5 making toys. The other day he gave the five to an European relief fund for children. Here's the type Mr. Hoover admires. —(c) U. & U.

AIRPLANE ON WHEELS. Aviation being all the rage nowadays, it is natural that the toy manufacturers should turn their ingenuity loose on the subject. The latest thing is a three-wheeled cart that is built along the lines of an airplane. It is propelled by pedals and steered by the back wheel, which acts as a "rudder." —(Wide World.)
